

Start the new school year getting to know more about Parenting Styles & you!!!

Evening talk by Mr Michael Chua on 23 January (Friday) 7.00 pm – 9.00 pm OR Morning talk cum sharing session 4 February 2014 (Wednesday) from 8.30 am to 11.30 am

What is your parenting style? How are you parenting now? Are you of a Sergeant Major, Jelly Fish or Busy Bee parenting style? What are the effects of such styles on the kids?

As children come in different shape and sizes, parents too come in different “patterns”. Some are strict while others lenient; some are warm while others cool.

Research shows that there are 4 to 5 different parenting styles, and each generally leads to children developing certain tendencies. This workshop shares the different parenting styles and their effects, help participants understand their own natural style, and how to become better parents.
